Oregon Health Science University

- Medium-large academic residency program that is committed to training outstanding general internists
- Gain the foundational knowledge and skills that will help you to thrive in your career whether you are destined for primary care, hospital medicine, or a subspecialty
- Unique opportunities for training in point-of-care ultrasound, health systems science, and global health
- 3+1 schedule with rotations at multiple training locations, including the University hospital, Veteran's hospital, and community sites
- Deeply committed to health equity and have an innovative curriculum in social medicine and advocacy

Contact Us:

Zac Jacobs-Program Director

jacobsz@ohsu.edu

Website:

https://www.ohsu.edu/school-of-medicine/medicine/internal-medicine-residency-program

@ohsuimres